- ✚ “Perseverance” - Break out and go forward; dig up what’s been buried
- ✚ “Friend of God” - Word to an older man who was greatly blessed; we are all “welcomed as the friends of God”
- ✚ Don’t lose your “Individuality” - “Preciousness to the Lord” - “Sense of those in need”
- ✚ Husband who gives himself totally to God receives life back from Him; faithful wife who comes alongside husband and God will cause her husband to come alongside her
- ✚ “Creative”
- ✚ From the time God saved our parents to the time He saved us, God has been pouring into us; God makes us good parents, not our parents or our children
- ✚ Don’t be bitter, feeling cheated or that you missed out – God has always been with you and has brought you through
- ✚ Take up your assignment; payoff is coming

YOUTH GROUP - December 2008 - Update from Eric

Things are going well - we have been having 9-12 regular attendance, and I think we are finally starting to fall into our groove. Most of our focus has been to of course bring the reality of who God is and who Jesus is and how this pertains to us as spiritual beings...and also to help them deal with adjusting to the real world...health ways to deal with real-life issues. What a ride! We aren't without issues, but the good news is that many of the youth have opened up in communication..the fruit of the relationships that we are aiming for. We will continue to do our best and to pray that we can see that in all of our young people. We are currently recording a skit with the group, and they are all pretty excited. When we get it done we would love to show it in church some Sunday morning.!

I would like to keep a 15-passenger van on the prayer list. I know that an expense like that could be an issue for a church of our size, but nevertheless we all know that God is a big God. I am still trying to sell our band bus and would love to donate a couple grand toward that if we can get it sold. (Editor's note - another prayer item) BUT, more importantly, I have a real excitement in my Spirit about getting these kids on a missions trip. I know that there is an immense amount of preparation and cost involved, but I really do think lives could be dramatically influenced. It would also give us a reason in youth group to focus and concentrate on what we would do on a trip like that and prepare for such an outing...learn how to pray for children, teach songs, and maybe even speak about the U.S., etc., etc. There is of course the dramatic effect of visiting someplace like that, which is good. I also believe that it could contribute to a spiritual awakening in some of our young people, and it would really tighten us up as a group. Something to keep lifted up in prayer!!
